Dedicated to The Six Degrees of Howard Garfinkel, whose mother discovered Judy Garland 🌈 and to Will, Vera, Leigh, and Robin Klein... Charles "Doc" Turner, The "Glider" Tom Konchalski, Hubie Brown, the "Sandmen" Dennis Jackson, the "Alligator" Mike Fratello, the "King" Frank Marino, Willie Negron... George Rivenburg and his family, Herb and Melanie Kutzen and Dan and Jane Kagen of Lake Bryn Mawr Camp, and to the historical legacy of the Five-Star Basketball Camp that continues to operate today... can never forget Camp Rosemont, Pitt, and Radford... and the Ranners of the Fireside... and to all the high school and college coaches, counselors, lecturers, referees, station masters, staff, recruiters, employees, influencers, guests, "waiters", kitchen staff, and most importantly... to EVERY single one of the 250,000 hard-working, passionate "little one-star" campers, who have grown up, and have, hopefully, raised their own families... where THE LOVING WILL NEVER STOP... instilled by Garf's hilarious "Five-Star Osmosis"... on and off the basketball court since 1966... and to all who have passed on, are still living, or are yet unborn!

And... Thank you Shapiro... wherever you may be! 🤝

Who is “Crazy” George?

“Crazy” George Schauer is the longest running “little grassroots” professional one-man basketball show in the history of basketball..since 1970..and by the Grace of God, still going strong! He has been blessed to perform in 48 states and 16 countries...at summer camps, school assemblies, coaching clinics, halftime shows, state fairs, hospitals, amusement parks, shopping malls, discos, banquets, bar mitzvahs, telethons, and carnivals. In 54 years, over 11,000 shows in front of more than 12 million people live!

From Cleveland, Ohio, George Schauer was an average high school basketball player with above average desire and fire!! Because he learned unique basketball tricks, he earned a 3 year full-ride basketball scholarship to the University of Minnesota after one year at Ashland College. He became the featured “star” in Bill Musselman’s famous Pre-Game Warmup. He only scored 2 points in his entire career, but the game was stopped when he swished it from the corner because he was mobbed by the cheerleaders and dance team, his face covered with lipstick!

After graduation in 1974, still as George Schauer, he landed on the front page of the New York Times, spinning a basketball on his nose against a seal in the Bronx Zoo. The seal won, but the newspaper labeled him “Crazy” George, and a career was born! He has driven over 3 million miles traveling the USA, and has worked in promotion for eleven different teams in seven different leagues, including 4 NBA teams. He has been the Goodwill Ambassador for the G League Texas Legends since 2011.

His greatest honor was being inducted into the legendary Five Star Basketball Camp Hall of Fame with the likes of Michael Jordan and Hubie Brown. “Crazy” George has changed his name twice, to “Generous George” in 2013 in honor of the Sandy Hook shooting victims..and to “Thankful George” in 2024 as suggested by NBA Hall of Famer Del Harris, after miraculously surviving COVID, two mini-strokes, open heart surgery, cow valve replacement, pacemaker, and a mitralclip procedure!

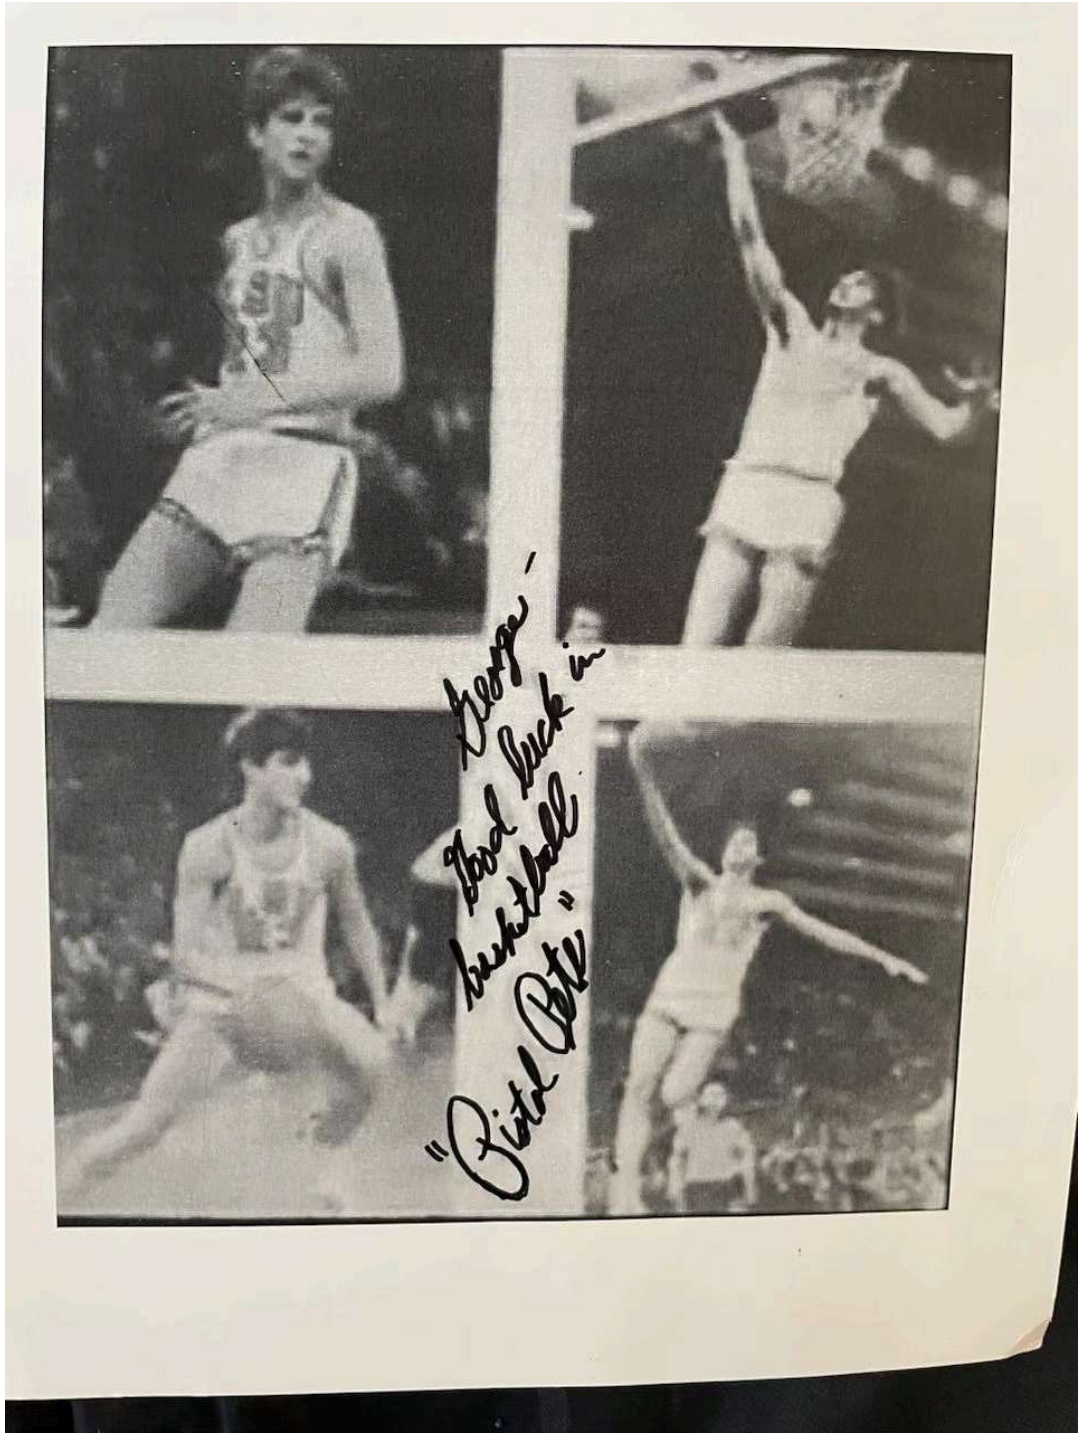

“Little” George Schauer says, “I will always be grateful to God and all the wonderful “little” teachers and my “little” WHS classmates who helped me in the past and RIGHT NOW..and people like “little” Bill and Kris Musselman, “little” Ed and Annie Castellano, “little” Bob Foley and “little” Greg Pritchett, “little” Kevin Wilson, “little” Brad and Seth Greenberg, “little” Meadowlark Lemon, “little” George and Elene Bruns, “little” Pat and Denny Stern, “little” Dick and Lorraine Vitale, “little” Jerry and Shirley Printer, and “little” Dan and Lynn Zivko..”little” Hal and Trudy Wissel, “little” Phil and Judy Martelli, “little” Chris DiJulia, “little” Jim and Dianne Murray, “little” Jack and Jane Fertig, “little” Peter Lai, “little” Chris Terrance, “little” Rich Wolfe, and “little” Donnie and Lotta Nelson, “little” Bill and Elizabeth Boyce, “little” Malcolm and Carey Farmer, my “little” cardiologist Dr. Alaiti, my 24/7 caregiver “little” Stacey Bartell...and to all the countless “little” people who have directly steered and saved my life many times...and to “little” Herb and Carla Welling...with their comedic awareness of Curry Kirpatrick, Marv Kessler, and George Raveling...and “little” Scott Peterman of Hoop Scoop for this incredible production!!! I am most proud of “little” Tanya Crevier and her “little” brother Bruce, “little” Jim “Basketball” Jones and Brenda, their son “little” Parker “Basketball” Jones, and Lebron’s HS teammate “little” Corey Jones, “little” Dave Hopla, and “little” Jack “Blackjack” Ryan...all who saw my show and have created their OWN basketball shows and careers..who continue to travel around the world, PROTECTED BY GOD, to inspire millions of kids to keep working hard, helping others to stay focused on what they CAN do, to Keep the Ball Rollin' no matter what..and to NEVER GIVE UP HOPE!

A sincere THANKS to you ALL for being my INSPIRATION!!! 🙏🏀❤️
