On August 16th, #Qanon posted a quote from an email that was reported to be from James Comey.

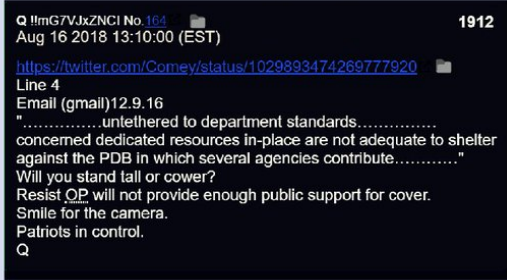

3 days later, Comey tweeted using similar wording.

Coincidence?

Define 'Projection'.

D's SCREAM when POTUS meets w/ PUTIN?

D's demand to hold hearings w/ the interpreter used during the private POTUS-PUTIN meeting?

D's demand ALL meetings w/ PUTIN be CANCELLED?

If POTUS knows everything - control over what orgs are central to operational success?

1. DOJ
2. FBI
3. NSA
4. US MILITARY
5. STATE
6. F_ASSETS

Ask yourself, if above are central to operational success, who would you pick to lead such orgs?

AMEN Q!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

For those of us who have stayed the course for 20+ years, we have gone alone. We have stood firm in the defense of the truth, yet many of us have very few friends and couldn't do much in the real world. The penalties for speaking up for truth have been severe for decades, and I've lived life in the shadows. It wasn't worth speaking out until now.

That creates problems for people exchanging information across international boundaries (Five Eyes).

Also, the statement of NOFORN (meaning "no foreign nationals") is applied to any information that may not be released to any non-U.S. citizen. NOFORN and distribution statements are often used in conjunction with classified information or alone on SBU information.

I would imagine someone like the President could be immunized against FISA surveillance if they claimed it was a matter of National Security.

85) #Qanon wrote:
Define 'State Secrets'.

The "State's Secrets Privilege" allows the President (or his designee) to keep secret any information if it's release is deemed to pose a threat to National Security.

State secrets privilege

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The state secrets privilege is an evidentiary rule created by United States legal precedent. Application of the privilege results in exclusion of evidence from a legal case based solely on affidavits submitted by the government stating that court proceedings might disclose sensitive information which might endanger national security.^{[1][2][3][4][5][6]} United States v. Reynolds,^[7] which involved military secrets, was the first case that saw formal recognition of the privilege.

Following a claim of "state secrets privilege", the court rarely conducts an in camera examination of the evidence to evaluate whether there is sufficient cause to support the use of this doctrine. This results in court rulings in which even the judge has not verified the veracity of the assertion.^[1] The privileged material is completely removed from the litigation, and the court must determine how the unavailability of the privileged information affects the case.^{[3][5]}

Function [edit]

The purpose of the state secrets privilege is to prevent courts from revealing state secrets in the course of civil litigation (in criminal cases, the Classified Information Procedures Act serves the same purpose). The government may intervene in any civil suit, including when it is not a party to the litigation, to ask the court to exclude state secrets evidence. While the courts may examine such evidence closely, in practice they generally defer to the Executive Branch. Once the court has agreed that evidence is subject to the state secrets privilege, it is excluded from the litigation. Often, as a practical matter, the plaintiff cannot continue the suit without the privileged information, and drops the case. Recently, courts have been more inclined to dismiss cases outright, if the subject matter of the case is a state secret.^[8]

The screenshot shows the White House website's 'EXECUTIVE ORDERS' section. The main heading is '2018 Amendments to the Manual for Courts-Martial, United States'. Below the heading, it is categorized under 'LAW & JUSTICE' and dated 'Issued on: March 1, 2018'. The text of the executive order is visible, starting with 'By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including chapter 47 of title 10, United States Code (Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), 10 U.S.C. 801-946), and in order to prescribe amendments to the Manual for Courts-Martial, United States, prescribed by Executive Order 12473 of April 13, 1984, as amended, it is hereby ordered as follows:'. The order specifies that Section 1, Part II, Part III, and Part IV of the Manual for Courts-Martial, United States, are amended as described in Annex 1.
