COACHING PORTFOLIO FOR VERMONT SAMPLE UNIVERSITY

INTRODUCTION / COVER LETTER

Dear Mr. City, State,

As a professional with a successful history of directing college basketball teams toward excellence, I am excited to submit my application for the available Basketball Coach position on your team. My comprehensive hands-on experience will make me an excellent addition to your organization. Below is a sampling of highlights from my resume that demonstrate the overall value I can leverage as a Basketball Coach to advance Company Name's mission:

- 7 years experience coaching basketball at the college level
- Demonstrated knowledge and application of NCAA rules and regulations
- Strong ability to work effectively within diverse team environments
- Proven expertise in recruiting, fundraising, and community engagement

The educational foundation, commitment, and leadership experience outlined on the attached resume position me for a successful partnership with your institution. I would welcome the opportunity to learn more about your team, and to discuss how I can address the unique challenges of the Basketball Coach position in order to add value at your school.

Sincerely,

Tyler Miller

REASONS TO LIVE IN VERMONT

Vermont is one of the greatest places in the country to live, go to school, and work. Why should you live in Vermont? Here are a few reasons why.

Vermont Sample University - Nestled at the luscious base of the Green Mountains, the SAMPLE campus offers a panoramic view of every season. From watching autumn claim the mountainside from and conquering snowfalls in our snowboard park, students can enjoy Vermont's natural beauty from every corner of campus. The 125-acre campus offers future student athletes a chance to take a chance in over 71-degree programs, and 11 different graduate programs. Some interesting history about SAMPLE UNIVERSITY is that dating all the way back to 1817, SAMPLE is the 2nd oldest university in Vermont, and the 20th oldest in the nation.

Vermont is a remarkable place for outdoor enthusiasts - A mere mention of Vermont, images of sunlit meadows of black-and-white cows, dazzling white ski trails, tidy hillside farms, blazing red maple trees along a stone wall, covered bridges, and buckets collecting sap for maple syrup appear. Amazingly scenic, Vermont has no shortage of outdoor activities. Here's our list of top outdoor activities in Vermont: Stay in a cozy log cabin, Take a brewery road trip, Stroll down a village street in the snow, Visit the Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Factory, Hike to the summit of Camel's Hump, Tour the biggest granite quarry in the world, Visit a local farmer's market, Taste pure maple syrup, Road trip Vermont Route 100, and Explore the covered bridges.

Experience the world-famous foliage each fall - It's no secret that Vermont is one of the best places in the United States to view spectacular fall foliage. In every season, Vermont's iconic maple leaves turn from their lush summer green to vibrant shades of orange, red, and yellow.

Visit the Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Factory - Nestled in the heart of the Green Mountains, Ben & Jerry's ice cream factory sits on a rolling pasture overlooking the Worcester Range. The guided factory tours explain the production procedure and differences in flavors. Sample tastings are also available.

Keep your eyes out for the Lake Monster - The 125-mile Lake Champlain is regarded as the best lake in the state. For New Englanders, the lake is an important part of their culture and it has got about 50 beaches on its side.

Tour the biggest granite quarry in the world - The E.L. Smith Quarry owned by Rock of Ages in Vermont is believed to be the world's largest monumental granite quarry. It encompasses 50 acres and is 570 feet deep. This quarry is now in reserve.

Taste pure maple syrup from where it's made best - Maple syrups form one of the largest farm produces in Vermont that is no place better to taste it than the farms. Take a trip to the farms in Vermont to relish the best maple syrups.

Shop at the luxury outlets in Manchester - Manchester is Vermont's shopping den with an impressive mix of locally owned boutiques, designer outlets, and a famous indie bookstore. You can hunt for fabulous and find great treasures on a single beautiful stroll.

Go skiing on an epic ski mountain - It snows heavily in Vermont and with as much as 25 feet of natural snow each winter, skiing is a major activity here. Here are some of the best skiing venues in Vermont: Okemo Mountain Resort, Stowe Mountain Resort, Jay Peak, Stratton Mountain, Killington, Mount Snow, Sugarbush, Smugglers' Notch, Bromley Mountain Resort, and Bolton Valley.

Show that you researched more than the school / research surrounding areas and entire state
