

Some have chosen to focus on the subject of pedophilia in #Qanon's latest posts. Personally, I see that as a minor theme. Without minimizing the seriousness of pedophilia itself to those who are its victims, the subject of pedophilia isn't the main point of Q's recent messages

I believe the larger issue being raised by #Qanon is the importance of learning the way in which he communicates with us and the anons.

An example is that Q wants us to learn how to instinctively see the relationship between the President's tweets and Q's posts. On April 15th, #Qanon posted this. He noted that because proofs were being lost, he wanted the anons (and us) to make side by side graphics of his posts and POTUS tweets regarding Loretta Lynch and the deal she made with the Clinton's for a spot on the Supreme Court.

Q

I'll admit I haven't paid enough attention in the past to the timing of POTUS Tweets and #QAnon's posts. That's partly because those who attempted to explain the relationships weren't able to convey the relevance of them to me in a way that made sense. Since #Qanon has indicated that it's important for us to learn to see these connections, I'm going to make a more diligent effort to pay attention to them and point them out. We left off on April 20th when #Qanon posted this.

Carl Bernstein

Co-Winner of the 1973 Pulitzer Prize for Public Service

After leaving The Washington Post in 1977, Carl Bernstein spent six months looking at the relationship of the CIA and the press during the Cold War years. His 25,000-word cover story, published in Rolling Stone on October 20, 1977, is reprinted below.

THE CIA AND THE MEDIA

How America's Most Powerful News Media Worked Hand in Glove with the Central Intelligence Agency and Why the Church Committee Covered It Up

BY CARL BERNSTEIN

In 1953, Joseph Alsop, then one of America's leading syndicated columnists, went to the Philippines to cover an election. He did not go because he was asked to do so by his syndicate. He did not go because he was asked to do so by the newspapers that printed his column. He went at the request of the CIA.

Alsop is one of more than 400 American journalists who in the past twenty-five years have secretly carried out assignments for the Central Intelligence Agency, according to documents on file at CIA headquarters. Some of these journalists' relationships with the Agency were tacit; some were explicit. There was cooperation, accommodation and overlap. Journalists provided a full range of clandestine services—from simple intelligence gathering to serving as go-betweens with spies in Communist countries. Reporters shared their notebooks with the CIA. Editors shared their staffs. Some of the journalists were Pulitzer Prize winners, distinguished reporters who considered themselves ambassadors without-portfolio for their country. Most were less exalted: foreign correspondents who found that their association with

Most are of course with generic companies, but more recently we have done a number of agreements with big US and European pharmaceutical companies. I can get you exact number if you need it. But particularly for second and third line drugs and for new drugs in the pipeline that are coming forward, our agreements with the big pharmaceutical companies are important. We are also doing agreements with the large pharmaceutical companies for vaccines and for TB and malaria drugs.

Mission

Our Story

HUMA was started in 2004 by a number of interested alumni who felt that the Muslim Alumni community could be strengthened by an official organization. It was also envisioned to support the longterm goal of providing for a Muslim Chaplain on campus and seeing the development of a Masjid in the Harvard Square area. Currently with over 300 members, spanning various school and years, HUMA is a vibrant and active alumni organization.

"The mission of Harvard University Muslim Alumni (HUMA) is to connect Harvard Muslim alumni and faculty and thereby to support Islam and Muslims at Harvard."

The gravity of not having a valid basis for an investigation and basing one on false pretenses is that the entire investigation would be tainted. All the evidence gathered becomes fruit of the poisonous tree. The entire investigation could be thrown out.

#Qanon

Fruit of the poisonous tree is a legal metaphor in the United States used to describe evidence that is obtained illegally. The logic of the terminology is that if the source (the "tree") of the evidence or evidence itself is tainted, then anything gained (the "fruit") from it is tainted as well.
