

College Football Prospect Checklist

Name: _____

Grad Year: _____

Position: _____

9th Grade

- Complete your school work and achieve high grades.
- Go on-line and fill out questionnaires for schools you are interested in attending.
- Become a part of school activities outside of athletics.
- Run Track in the Spring if you don't play another spring sport
- Meet with your high school coach and talk about areas to improve.
- Make a list of colleges you are interested in attending.
- Attend at least one college camp and one college satellite camp in the summer.
- Visit two colleges during the summer.
- Attend every high school and 7-on-7 activity with your high school team
- Create a highlight film
- Create a Twitter account
- Create an email account

10th Grade

- Continue to get good grades.
- Update your highlight film
- Go on-line and fill out questionnaires for schools you are interested in attending.
- Make sure your high school coach knows you are interested in playing college football.
- Have another evaluation of your film completed.
- Take the PSAT in the Fall.
- Register for the SAT or ACT in the spring.
- Register for the NCAA Eligibility Center (Certification Account
- Become a part of school activities outside of athletics.
- Run Track in the Spring if you don't play another spring sport
- Make a list of potential college majors you are interested in studying.
- Attend at least three college camps and two satellite camps in the summer.
- Attend at least one showcase
- Visit two colleges during the summer.
- Attend every workout and 7-on-7 practice and competition with your high school team

College Football Prospect Checklist

Name: _____

Grad Year: _____

Position: _____

11th Grade

- Complete your school work and achieve high grades.
- Go on-line and fill out questionnaires for schools you are interested in attending.
- Sign up to take an SAT or ACT test in the fall and spring.
- Meet with your high school coach after the season to talk about recruiting.
- Talk to every coach that communicates with you.
- Run Track in the Spring if you don't play another spring sport
- Contact college coaches and schedule two unofficial visits in the spring.
- Attend at least two college camp and two college mega camp in the summer.
- Plan available official visits during the summer.
- Update your highlight film
- Attend every high school and 7-on-7 activity with your high school team

12th Grade

- Continue to get good grades.
- Take the SAT or ACT again to improve your scores.
- Talk to every coach that contacts you.
- Fill out applications for the colleges you want to attend.
- Fill out the FAFSA form.
- Stay focused on your grades.
- Narrow down your list of colleges in preparation for signing day in February.
- Fill out housing forms for the college you decide to attend.
- Take final official visits in the fall.
- After graduation ask your counselor uploads your final transcript to the eligibility center.
- Run Track in the Spring.
- Continue working out after signing day so you are prepared for college football.
- Communicate with the college to make sure all of your paperwork is completed.
- Make sure you talk with your college coach about when you report and what you need to have done.

College Football Prospect Checklist

Name: _____

Grad Year: _____

Position: _____

Things to Remember

- College coaches are not just recruiting the football player or the student. They are recruiting the entire you.
- Take the SAT or ACT again to improve your scores.
- Talk to every coach that contacts you.
- Fill out applications for the colleges you want to attend.
- Fill out the FAFSA form.
- Stay focused on your grades.
- Narrow down your list of colleges in preparation for signing day in February.
- Fill out housing forms for the college you decide to attend.
- Take final official visits in the fall.
- After graduation ask your counselor uploads your final transcript to the eligibility center.
- Run Track in the Spring.
- Continue working out after signing day so you are prepared for college football.
- Communicate with the college to make sure all of your paperwork is completed.
- Make sure you talk with your college coach about when you report and what you need to have done.