

I hope you find this course helpful when trying to move your H back around. These are ways that are easily communicable to your players and give great advantages to your offense. By teaching your base formations with a few tags to move players around you can stay simple and play fast. This way eliminates the need for tons of formation names that your players have to memorize.

If you have any questions feel free to contact me:

Wakeberg1202@gmail.com

580-641-6261

@CoachBergner on Twitter