

SO YOU WANNA BE AN AGENT?

MODULE 8 || POSITION YOURSELF FOR SUCCESS

It's Just A Title...

Being a Certified Agent is just a title.

There are many amazing people in this world with accomplished titles next to their names. But there are also many people with those same titles that have run businesses into the ground because they were in it for the wrong reasons.

If you are hoping to be a part of this agency business because you want to people to refer to you as “a cool sports agent,” or so you can finally put that title in your caption on Instagram, you will probably experience a long and miserable journey.

Just because you want to be an agent does not necessarily means it's the correct path for you!

It could be... And I'm rooting for you if it is!

But please understand, there are many other career paths other than becoming an agent, (but similar enough to being an agent), where you can fulfill that passion inside of you.
