

Rationale for the Course

As our organization has expanded and evolved over the years, it has become evident the key to offering quality training for Special Olympics athletes is the local coach.

Our goal is to educate this individual in coaching methods and techniques.

Great strides are more likely to occur toward accomplishing the mission of Special Olympics by offering quality sports training and athletic competition opportunities.